Victoria Pynchon, Esquire

Settle It Now Dispute Resolution Services

Beverly Hills, CA

Ms. Pynchon became a full-time attorney-mediator after a 25-year career in complex commercial litigation and trial work. Her commercial litigation career involved litigating "bet the company" antitrust, unfair competition, intellectual property and insurance coverage actions with such firms as the Philadelphia-based Pepper, Hamilton LLP; the Los Angeles-based Buchalter, Nemer P.C. and the San Francisco-based Hancock, Rothert & Bunshoft LLP (recently merged with Duane Morris LLP). Ms. Pynchon has prosecuted and defended nationwide consumer class actions and litigated securities fraud and professional liability actions. Her clients have been in the garment and import-export industries, as well as the health care, entertainment, finance, manufacturing and insurance industries. She is also a neutral for the Southern California ADR firm, Judicate West, and serves as a mediator on her own specialty ADR panel, Settle It Now Dispute Resolution Services. Furthermore, Ms. Pynchon is author of the Settle It Now Negotiation Blog (www.negotiationlawblog.com) and founder of The IP ADR Blog (www.ipadrblog.com). She has had academic and practical teaching experience at the undergraduate, graduate and post-graduate levels, including years of teaching experience with NITA. Ms. Pynchon received her LL.M. in Conflict Resolution from the Straus Institute and her law degree from University of California at Davis King Hall School of Law.
